

Oregon Adventure Guides' Suggested Guest Gear list

Oregon Adventure Guides - Suggested Gear List

Because we cannot predict exact weather conditions, and weather conditions can change rapidly in the high desert, being prepared is always the best choice. Bringing and/or wearing layers of clothing is a standard practice in all outdoor activities. Please use your BEST judgment and bring appropriate clothing so your experience will be a comfortable one.

The following gear list is a "suggested" gear list:

- Day pack
- Water & water bottles/half gallon total each per person per day minimum capacity
- Snacks and a lunch
- Long sleeve shirt one with a collar/preferably not cotton
- Thermal underwear top and bottom
- T-shirt/preferably non-cotton
- Collared Short-sleeve shirt/preferably not cotton
- Shorts Long nylon or stretch pants
- Comfortable Running or lightweight hiking shoes for walking
- Rain Jacket
- Sunglasses
- Warm hat or Ball cap
- Warm/Pile jacket
- Necessary Medications
- Personal toiletries, sunscreen, Chapstick, etc
- Camera and film or digital camera and memory stick
- Climbing Shoes, harness helmet and belay device or request this equipment from us.
- Please make sure you fill out the release forms including all info and send it to us at <mailto:info@oregonadventureguides.com>